WON BY SHEER LUCK

BRITANNIA WNS THE RACE OVER THE VALKYRIE

At Rothsay the Big Yachts Britannia, Valkyrie and Alisa, Open the Regatta of the Royal Northern Yacht Club—Valkyrie is Leaving Everything Far to the Rear when the Wind Falls Her—Britannia at the Same Time Catches the Wind and Ships in While the Valkyrie Lies Beaten—Valkyrie's Reputation Unhurt.

Rothsay, June 29.—The Prince of Wales' Britannia was exceedingly fortunate in the great race here today, defeating the new Valkyrie III, on time allowance. The thousands of spectators who witnessed the opening of the Royal Northern Yacht Club, could hardly believe their ears when they heard the announcement that Lord Dunsany's yacht had been defeated by two minutes, sixteen seconds.

Rothsay Bay was a halo of glory from end to end today. The flotilla of pleasure craft crowded about the starting point, near Rothsay, the whole itself was dotted with white sails of all classes and conditions. The course extended from Rothsay bay around the flag boats off Mount Stuart, Largs and Wemyss bay. It was sailed over twice with an extra log of distance from Rothsay bay to and around the Largs head, and back to Rothsay.

The Valkyrie was a long way outside the Rothsay bay mark and had the inshore berth before the starting gun was fired. The times of crossing the line were: Alisa 10:33:29; Britannia 10:50:24; and the Valkyrie 11:00:00. The Alisa was almost becalmed on the start, down near the Ascat shore the wind was lively and the Valkyrie secured a good lead.

The first round was completed as follows: Valkyrie 3:21:22; Britannia 3:32:42; Alisa 4:34:45.

As she rounded the Rothsay bay mark back to the end of the first round the Valkyrie was greeted with cheers from the spectators ashore and afloat, who had already made up their minds to believe that she was the victor.
